The first part of the handwritten musical score consists of ten staves. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The notation is dense, featuring many beamed notes and rests. A double bar line with repeat dots appears in the middle of the fourth staff. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a final chord symbol.

The second part of the score begins with a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#), indicated by a sharp sign and a double bar line. It consists of three staves of dense handwritten notation, continuing the style of the first part.
